INSTRUCTIONS AND INFORMATION FOR WRITTEN REQUESTS FOR SERVICE

One of the most important procedures which takes place at the onset of any legal action is the service of process. Unless service is quickly and properly executed, the legal proceedings could be disrupted, delayed or even dismissed. To insure that all parties are properly served, you are charged with the responsibility of using all resources to obtain a correct and complete address as well as requesting proper service of all related parties in a timely fashion.

Some suggested resources to determine the mailing address of a party include but are not limited to:

Contact with known associates, relatives and friends, neighbors and employers as well as Family Records. Internet Locator Services, Professional Investigators, Public Court Records including Domestic Relations Court, Small Claims, Municipal and Civil Litigation Records, Criminal Records, Bureau of Prisons, Probate Court Records, Public Library Archives, Telephone and Criss Cross Directories, U. S. Postal Service, Federal Court Records, Bankruptcy Records.

The following are guidelines for determining the most appropriate method of service. You may want to consult Civil Rule 4 and your attorney is an appropriate resource concerning this topic.

- Regular Mail: Requires a complete and accurate address but does not provide any assurance or proof of delivery unless it is returned by the U.S. Postal Service as "Undeliverable".
- Certified Mail: Requires a complete and accurate address and the hearing is not set for at least 28 days to allow ample response time for the return verification. If the certified mail is returned as refused or unclaimed and you did not sign a Waiver of Service, you must request in writing that Ordinary Mail be sent to the same address or provide additional information in writing so service can be resent.
- Personal Service: Is one of the quickest ways to obtain service for a hearing as long as you are sure of the residential address or employment address. It is helpful to indicate the times the party is most likely to be present during the daytime hours at the indicated address. Personal Service requires the Sheriff or other approved Process Server to serve the Summons and a copy of the Complaint or Petition only to the named individual (s).
- Residential Service: Is also one of the quickest ways to obtain service for a hearing as long as you have a correct and complete address. The Sheriff or an approved Process Server is required to serve the Summons and a copy of the Complaint or Petition to any household member of suitable age.
- Publication: Is only appropriate when all other resources are exhausted to identify a correct and deliverable address or all diligent attempts for service have failed. This process requires additional cost and completion of Form 15, in addition to the Service Request, Form 1397.

Please note that actual notice of a hearing is not a substitute for legal Service of Process. You as a party cannot Serve Process, however it may be effective to give actual notice of the hearing by telling the person or party of the hearing date, time and place of the hearing. You might give them a copy of the Summons along with a copy of the Complaint or Petition.
